ANOTHER FRAUD.

It has often been remarked that in a market such as this, where the transactions are on a very large scale, the precautions against fraud are fewer than even in the smallest markets of Europe. Custom and confidence go hand-in-hand with us in all our transactions, and it requires some great accident or misfortune to induce us to adopt rules which were propounded to us years ago, and, as a matter of course, triumphantly rejected.

The great robbery by Messrs. Ocampo and Co.'s collecting clerk, which startled this city on Saturday night, and which has defrauded that well-known firm of $1,250,000 m|c., would have been impossible had Mr. Eduardo Madero's scheme for crossed checks been adopted by the banks two years ago; and, by a remarkable coincidence, the very party who opposed Mr. Madero's scheme most steadfastly, and had it ultimately thrown out, was Don Manuel A. Ocampo, partner of the very firm which is now the victim of the fraud.

At a late hour on Saturday night the news spread through the city that the collecting clerk, a Spaniard named Sanches, had not put in his appearance in the office of his employers, Messrs. Ocampo and Co., at the usual hour, and had collected during the day $1,250,000, which had been paid to him in checks, all which checks he had cashed at the different banks in town, with the exception of one check for $250,000 given to him by Messrs. Devoto and Co.

Telegrams were despatched and the customary measures taken in such cases made and provided for shutting the stable-door very fast—after the horse was gone, of course. To get a judge's order for arrest at that late hour, or even on the following Sunday morning, so as to telegraph down to the authorities of Montevideo, was impossible; but messages were sent down to highly influential parties, which would have secured the arrest of Sanchez there until the necessary judge's order could be obtained here.

Twenty years ago scarcely a house in this market used a check-book; to-day all the payments are made by checks, and this robbery by Sanches will bring into force the system of crossing checks, which has been found to work so admirably in England. It may not be generally known that when Dn. Eduardo Madero was President of the Provincial Bank he obtained from Messrs. Waterlow and Co. of London, assorted samples of crossed checks, lithographed by that firm for the London Banks; and in the new schedule of reformed rules, drawn up by Mr. Madero for the bank, there is a whole chapter devoted to the subject of checks; and in this chapter there are various articles introducing the cross-check system. When this paper was originally drawn up, a question having arisen with the bank about a forged endorsed check, we had occasion to look into the matter, but the opinion then of the many parties with whom we spoke was that Mr. Madero's crossed-check scheme would not suit this market, and was not necessary. The swindle perpetrated upon Messrs. O'Campo last Saturday, by their collecting clerk Sanches, will change the opinions of those who so steadfastly opposed Mr. Madero's cross checked scheme. Had the houses when paying the checks to Sanches drawn two lines across the face of the check, and written between the lines River Plate Bank, or Italian Bank, or Carabassa Bank, then Sanches could not have cashed these checks, but should have deposited them to the credit of Messrs. O'Campo and Co., and the blunder of rejecting the crossed-check system, when proposed three years ago by Mr. Madero in the Provincial Bank, has cost Messrs. O'Campo and Co. one million of dollars, and if Devoto's check is paid, 250,000 dollars more. Experience purchased at such a cost is apt to be lasting. A victim was necessary to awaken the market to the dangers which surrounded it through its own wilful neglect, and that victim was found, by a species of coincidental retribution, in the person of the very party who so steadfastly opposed the reform.

It seems improbable that Sanches has changed the paper money into gold, and escaped to Europe, it being far more likely that he has gone into the camp or up to the provinces, where the paper money is as current as gold, Although we must remember that Mr Carranza's clerk, who a few years ago perpetrated a similar fraud, changed the paper money into gold and escaped to Spain, where he was surprised one morning by a fellow clerk of Mr Carranza's, and who had followed him all the way from Buenos Ayres.

A police agent went out to the Magellan on Sunday night to see if Sanches was on board, but he returned on shore at 2 o'clock in the morning reporting no such party to be found, and all day yesterday the most searching efforts were made to discover the whereabout of Sanches. 2 lines across the checks on Saturday afternoon would have saved the police all this trouble. The crossed check is worth to the merchants of Buenos Ayres all Col. Garmendia's policemen, and the sooner the rule is adopted by the banks the better.

The Pliny's Mails.

London, Feb. 26th.

The Queen and Princess Beatrice paid a visit to the ex-Empress Eugenie at Chislehurst, yesterday.

Lord Derby, speaking at a meeting of the Coffee Palace Company, London, yesterday, expressed his approval of the principle of local option. Few working men, said his lordship, realise the fact that every 3d. spent in beer meant a yard of land swallowed, and of every 6d. spent in drink 5d. went to the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

The Court of Commons Pleas yesterday voided the November election for West Derby ward on the ground that Mr Simpson was disqualified as a candidate.

A serious riot took place yesterday at Portadown between advocates of Tenant Right, who were holding a demonstration, and a large organised band of Orangemen who objected. Many persons were seriously injured.

The greater portion of the Rippenden Commercial Cotton Spinning Company's Works were yesterday destroyed by fire, the damage being estimated at about £17,000.

Yesterday, shortly before noon, an alarming and fatal accident occurred in the timber yard of Mr John Buckley, wholesale firewood and block merchant, Glasshouse-street, Vauxhall. It appears that about 21 men, women, and girls were employed in their usual occupation in tying up bundles of wood, when suddenly, and without the slightest warning, the uprights supporting a large stack of timber gave way, and the whole mass fell upon the unfortunate persons at work. After some delay the timber was removed, when it was found that five persons were killed and 14 severely injured. Three of the latter are now at St. Thomas's Hospital, and eight have been sent to their homes after treatment.

On Monday morning, between one and two o'clock, the dwelling-house, with its contents, and the haggard of a wealthy farmer named Edward Colclough, at Ardnacreeny, between Glasson and Collierstown, were completely destroyed by fire. About the hour named a knock was heard at the front door, when Mr Colclough partially dressed himself and asked loudly who was there. Soon afterwards Mrs Colclough was awakened by the noise of broken glass, a shaft or pole having been pushed through the bedroom window. She then discovered that the place was on fire, and at once proceeded to secure, if possible, the safety of her ten children, in which she happily succeeded. All else was consumed. It is believed, however, Mr Colclough managed to save his books and important papers. The only reason assigned for the outrage is, that Mr Colclough had a large amount of money, stated at between £4000 and £5000, lent out to small farmers and others in various sums on bills and mortgages, and that the object was to destroy the documents connected therewith. At a later period of the day Constable Doyle, of the Collierstown station, observed a man named Wilkinson prowling about the neighbourhood. He is a convict, on ticket-of-leave, and was arrested for not reporting himself, but suspecting it was for being concerned in the burning, he volunteered a statement to the following effect:—He had been residing in England, where he received a letter from a man named Feeny, one of Mr Colclough's servants, stating that his services were required, and that he would receive a good round sum. He met Feeny, who was accompanied by another man, named O'Donnell, by appointment, at Ballymahon, where they continued drinking until a late hour, and then left for Ardnacreeny. The other two men were soon arrested, and all three were brought before Mr Beckett on Tuesday, at Athlone, and remanded.

Mr. Holms has utterly failed. He began with high hopes of reducing the term of parliaments to five years. Mr. Bright was on his side, and came to the house last night to take notes, in the hope of being permitted to make a speech. Mr. Gladstone's oft reiterated objection to seven sessions, as within the letter of the law but not according to the spirit of parliamentary practice, made it almost incumbent upon him, if a great debate arose, to state his views. It was thought that at all events a vote would be given sufficiently large to be a protest against the further continuance of the present Parliament. But when the hour came it was found that the enthusiasm of the recess had worn itself out. The Liberal leaders were not too anxious to challenge an immediate appeal to the constituencies. Their followers, who have to bear the election expenses, were not eager to increase the cost of sitting for Parliament, Even advanced Liberal representatives of boroughs who are generally ready for democratic changes left the house, saying they could not have afforded to stand twelve months ago. Mr. Cowen made a brilliant speech which did not convince anybody, and then the debate languished. Mr. Bright ceased to take notes. All his colleagues deserted him. Even Mr. Gladstone disappeared. The division shows that Mr. Bright and Mr. Stansfeld among the Liberal leaders alone were in favour of the change. Only sixty members could be got into the division lobby in favour of the change of law; and we have probably heard the last for some time to come of the united Liberal demand for a quinquennial Act.

The article in the North German Gazette, Prince Bismarck's organ, inferring that the fortifications which the Russian Government is constructing on the north-west frontier are preparations for an aggressive war with Germany, has caused some excitement in German political circles. A leading Liberal journal expresses an opinion that the object of the article is merely to influence the German Parliament in favour of the new army bill. The North German Gazette has indirectly modified its article by publishing a statement by a person in a position to be well informed, and which is to the effect that these fortifications are merely defensive, and are constructed with no aggressive intention.

The brigands that have captured Colonel Synge demand a ransom of £15,000.

A report has reached Alexandria that complete anarchy prevails in Abyssinia. King John had fled from Debra Tabre, the inhabitants having risen in revolt. He had gone to Tschelga in order to collect a force to march against the rebels.

A Melbourne despatch, dated Jan. 27, says—"The harvest is well advanced and there is a heavy yield. It is expected that 150,000 tons of wheat will be available for export." A despatch from Sydney also states that the present season is considered to be the best that has been seen in New South Wales for some years past. A motion introduced into the New South Wales Parliament in favour of a protectionist policy had been counted out. The attendance at the Sydney Exhibition continues good.

The latest advices from New Zealand state that an amicable settlement is expected of the dispute as to the ownership of a large tract of land which the Maories a short time ago commenced to plough but were stopped by the colonists. A royal commission has been appointed to inquire into promises alleged to have been made to the Maories in regard to the possession of the plains in dispute. In the mean time they have been occupied by a strong force of trained constabulary and volunteers.

BAHIA BLANCA.

In looking over the Encyclopaedia Britanica a few days ago I was struck by what it says about the above port, describing it as the only good one in the Province of Buenos Ayres.

It is now some time since the Government ordered surveys to be made down there, and entrance to be properly buoyed, Mr Hunter Davidson having been commissioned to do so. I cannot remember having seen anything in the papers to the effect that same had been done.

There is no doubt but that the port of Bahia Blanca or Belgrano, as it is sometimes called, is destined, at some future day, to become a very important one. It is described by everyone who knows it, and has been there, as a most capacious and safe harbour, having plenty of depth at all times, and of easy entrance and good anchorage.

The only drawback about it that I see is that the town is situated so very far away from the port; but this will be partly remedied when the tramway is constructed, for which a concession has been granted by Government to a French emigration company.

The climate, although so much farther south, may be compared to that about Chascomus, only much drier, the rainfall being less during the year. Peaches, grapes, and all kinds of fruits grow there in abundance, also wheat, barley and maize.

Why is it that the lands around are not measured out in lots and given to emigrants? Is it that they are not fertile enough? or is it that the Immigration Department wants to people the upper provinces first? and has an object in doing so. By sending all to Santa Fé, where, one of your correspondents writes, the people are starving and can get no work, and are a burden upon the National Government.

One of my friends from the south writes me to advise all who want to make a move and better themselves to go down to the partidos of Bahia Blanca and Tres Arroyos; and calls it the land of 'Milk and Honey.' He describes his cattle and sheep as 'rolling fat.' This gentleman took down last year, in the month of May, 350 head of cattle (picked cows), which cost him then $400 per head, he has now about 700 and expects to have 1000 by the end of the year. What other business can shew equal results in so short a time.

The sale of Government lands by Sr Ocampo, in the partido of Tres Arroyos lately and result obtained ought to open the eyes of the public to the real value of said lands.

I happened to be in the partido of Tres Arroyos in the month of October last year, when cattle from Azul inwards were just recovering from the effects of last winter and were still with all their long hair on them. The contrast was astonishing, the animals did not seem to have felt the winter at all, their hair was quite short and glossy, were all very fat, calving all over, and cattle generally much larger than in the inside camps; I remarked this to some of the natives out there, and the answer invariably was 'Pero señor si aqui las vacas nunca sienten epidemia.'

And one of the greatest advantages these camps possess I consider to be their proximity to the port of Bahia Blanca. We shall soon have barracas, saladeros and grasserias built there, and then it is not at all improbable but that all the produce south of Azul will be shipped direct to Europe from this port. By this it is plainly to be seen what the value of land is likely to rise to in these districts in a few years, nor do I see why they may not reach half a million the league yet down there.

LATEST FROM ROSARIO

(Our own Correspondent.)

March 17th.

I wish all the Irishmen in the R. Plate health and prosperity on this the anniversary of their great Patron Saint. Very many of their countrymen are passing through a dire period, and this St. Patrick's day witnesses too many scenes of suffering in the old country; but the sufferers will have had an opportunity of appreciating the existence in all parts of the world of the large openhearted sympathy of their countrymen, whether their emblems be the Shamrock the Rose or the Thistle. All honour to the noble sons of St. Patrick in this far off land. Three thousand leagues of boisterous waves separate them from their native land, but the salt spray of the Atlantic has not dampened the proverbial warm-heartedness of the Irish character; and the substantial sympathy of the sons of Erin in the Argentine Republic will carry comfort and hope to many a poor family in the Father Land.

In reading over the Public Register to-day I was struck with the number of prisoners in the lockups, for jails we cannot call them. One hundred and forty three jailbirds is rather an alarming cipher for a town of twenty five thousand inhabitants. In one day, yesterday, fourteen were put into quod. This does not look well for the morality of Rosario. It is a consolation, however, to know that most of the crimes are of a trivial nature, easily purged by a few days' prison or a fine of a few dollars. Drunkenness and consequent disorderly conduct stands to the front. Of the eight taken up yesterday one was put into chokee for being found wounded in the streets at improper hours of the night.

I have not been able to get any satisfaction about the loss of my two letters to the Standard, and never will I suppose. If you do not receive a letter once a week you may take it for granted that some of the Post office officials are studying pure Saxon English at the expense of your correspondent.

The Federal Judge of Rosario has ordered the liberty of the twenty men that the Government of Cordoba had sent down as a present to the 3rd regiment of the Line in Rosario. These playful oddities of my friend, Dr. Vise, have been ruthlessly stood upon by the National Judge. I think it is very hard upon our Governors that their virtuous efforts to augment the strength of our army should be frustrated.

Nothing particularly new from Cordoba. Apparently every thing is quiet there. Seven revolutionists were brought in from Santa Rosa in the custody of five and twenty soldiers. My letters from the City of Doctors tell me that General Roca intends remaining in Cordoba, making it his headquarters. The Capital says he is expected in Rosario on his way to Buenos Ayres. This I do not think probable.

Some nights ago, two gentlemen, foreigners, were stopped in the streets of Cordoba at night, by a Commission headed by what appeared to them a very respectable citizen, armed with a Remington. He asked them what countrymen they were. On being answered foreigners he said: 'Very well, if you are foreigners, let us see if you can speak French.'

'Vous etes un grand sot, mon ami," said one of the gentlemen.

"Pasen caballeros," at once said the hero of the Remington.

Wheat is rising, and the pound loaf is getting wonderfully like a bun. If we should not make two bites of a cherry, we shall soon have to say the same thing for the loaf. A sale was made the other day of twelve hundred fanegas (of 15 arrobs), at $11.72 gold, This is very nearly two dollars gold per bushel. The great holders are confident that they will make a hit. They contend that for home consumption the country is short two millions of bushels. 'Tant pis pour eux' if their calculations be not exact. In the meantime I see that a couple of cargoes of wheat are being despatched from Chile for the River Plate. Wheat is still being sent from Rosario to Santa Fe, which, it must be confessed, is a very significant fact, and very little flour is arriving from the Andine provinces.

Notwithstanding the wretched yield of wheat the small farmers have done better this year than last. If they only got four fanegas off a square, they paid less in proportion for threshing, and their four fanegas bring them as much cash as twelve did last year; But the country is proportionately impoverished on the other hand.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The latest dates from Europe are 7th inst from Gibraltar, per Italian steamer Nord America, and 26th ult. from London per R.M.S. Minho. The news is important. A settlement of affairs in Afghanistan is probable: Our old friend Nawab Gholam Hassan Khan to be Ameer, with liberal subsidy: British to retire to Gandamuk: security for possession of Cabul, and an Envoy to be sent there when Hassan feels himself firmly established. The Indian Budget shows a surplus of £415,000. The Budget of France balances; 10 per cent of the duty on wine taken off. The Dublin Mansion House Relief Fund has reached £78,000, of which £39,000 in hands. The Allan Line steamer Manitoban broke her screw off the S.W. coast of Ireland but went on to Liverpool under sail. The Irish Land League Agitation Fund has been increased by £10,000 since last report. There is a strong feeling in France against surrendering Hartmann, the Nihilist, to the Russians, and there was a jolly row on the subject at a Students' public meeting in Paris, that old firebrand Blanqui being the main cause of it. There was a terrific earthquake in Galicia, Spain, on the 20th March, followed on the 21st by an awful hurricane which blew down mills and houses by the score and one church, but there was no loss of life. The Empress Eugenie was to sail for Zululand at end of this month. Sir Evelyn and Lady Wood accompany her. The journey by land will be so arranged that Her Majesty will reach the donga where her son so heroically fell on the 1st of June, and at the very hour of the struggle and the death. 'Sorrow's crown of sorrow' for the poor Empress. Wiser to have stopped at home. Her Majesty the Queen visited the Empress.

The elections on Sunday were, we learn from a native colleague, all 'canonica.' There was no row in town, but in the camp, here and there, complimentary revolver shots were numerous enough. At Ayacucho a prominent patriot (we do not know of which party) had a sharp run for his skin, but got into the church while Mass was going on, and so lives to fight, vote, or run away another day. An Argentine subscriber informs us that the Sarmiento men have all won.

Sunday was a farewell day at the Tigre; and, spite of the great 'creciente' on Saturday, when the people had to go to the station in boats, the roads were all dried up, and all the neighbours drove about. At Calypso Island many German families breakfasted; the apples on this delightful island this year surpass anything before seen; in fact, in the way of apples, quinces and pears, the Tigre takes the lead this year. The mud around the Retreat was too great for the wheels of the Tankarkville coaches, and the only way to approach the place was in boats. All the Lords spent the day in fishing. At Santa Teresa there was a farewell breakfast party, as the fair hostess leaves for the city to-day, and this charming place will now be shut up for the winter. At Trianon the fashionable tenants also move into the city. San Fernando and San Isidro were also very crowded, but many of the residents there stop all the year round; not so in the Tigre, where the first breeze of autumn shuts the whole place up.

The Montevidean papers report a first class blaze down there, in a job coach establishment in Calle 25 de Agosto, belonging to Messrs. Hurta Bros. Thirteen horses, a London break and a furniture van were turned into ashes in no time.

There was an amusing electioneering incident on the Boca Railway on Sunday. Some young scamps in the train shouted 'Viva Roca' and fired a volley of stones at a police patrol near Casa Amarilla. The Blues at once started in hot pursuit of the train and roared to the engine-driver to stop, if he had the faintest regard for his life or respect for la Autoridcd: but the driver only laughed at them and put on more steam and the policemen reached the next station just in time to see the Requistas scampering away in the crowd. For a wonder, the engine driver was not arrested.

The gas lights in the Florida Gardens will be quadrupled for the English Bachelor's Ball on the 1st April, and there will be 60 performers in the orchestra. If fair women and brave men cannot swing through the Blue Danube triumphantly with such an orchestra, then they ought to stay at home.

The latest Riachuelo news is that Messrs Pica & Co have offered to build a large dock for ocean steamers at the Northern entry of the Boca. How are they to get to it?

A native colleague seems somewhat surprised at seeing in the Municipal returns of the hospitals for last year several apothecaries, brokers, estancieros, architects, photographers, engineers, employees and even one editor on the list of patients, and attributes it to the general want of cash in the professions named. It does not follow. Many people who are well off have common sense enough to see that they can have better attendance in a hospital than their own houses, and go there when they fall ill, in preference to worrying their families and themselves with all the annoyances of a sick home.

The news from the West Coast shows that the Chilians are still going ahead. Moquegua was taken after a mere show of fight by the Peruvians. It's all nonsense keeping up this miserable war any longer: It will end in Blue Ruin for Peru and eventually Black Smash for Chile also if not stopped.

There were rumours in town yesterday of another revolutionary rumpus in Rioja.

The latest news from Mendoza is that Dr Lastarria, the Chilian Minister, is up there incog. We'll bet a white hat that it's the fellow with a name like a sneeze, who personated Dr Gould in Montevideo. What on earth would the Chilian Minister be doing in 'cette galére?'

It is with much regret that we feel bound to disturb any pleasing impressions which our native colleagues may have formed in reference to a paragraph which they have, for fully a week past, been copying from each other, doubtless with the praiseworthy intention of showing (what all the world has known for rather a long time) that the Court of Her Majesty Queen Victoria is the most strictly moral that England or any other country has ever known. The paragraph in question is about the most absurd as yet invented even by our French neighbours, who, although only separated from us by the Straits of Dover, often appear to know less about British manners and customs than the Sandwich Islanders. This famous paragraph, which first appeared in a French paper, announces that the Prince and Princess of Wales were to give at Buckingham Palace, by order of the Queen, a ball to which 'none but those who are legally united in the bonds of wedlock' were to be invited!! (Ye gods!!! the inuendo is enough to give the Lord Chamberlain, de Brett and the editor of Who's Who a fatal fit of paralysis,) Moreover, the gentlemen were to dance the whole night with their own wives, and with no other wives, under pain of Her Majesty's displeasure: while His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, to show a good example, would also dance the whole night with his lovely Princess, a thing he has not done since their marriage day! We really feel quite ashamed of our city colleagues' swallowing this ridiculous story, which might be accepted in a 'sanctum' in Rioja or Catamarca, but in 'culta Buenos Ayres,' Oh! If Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain should happen to take up a Buenos Ayrean paper and see this story in it, editors from the South American Athens who may visit London must abandon all hope of being presented at Court.

The Saint Cloud fete at Bieckert's Beer Garden was the great attraction of Easter Sunday. The fete began by Madame Veloni singing 'Old Mortales' and the Marseillaise. Then M. Daumas, the President, made a speech that Gambetta himself could not beat, and there was more cheering while the two bandmasters were presented with crowns. The Beer Garden really looked very nice, and the crowd of all nationalities, from hardy Norsemen to handsome Negroes, was prodigious, over 5000 entradas being sold up to six o'clock. One hundred and fifty charming young ladies sold bouquets. At night the crowd of visitors increased so much that there was hardly room to turn or take off one's hat.

Our indefatigable Boca reporter sends us the following mem.:—Yesterday the great talk here was touching the elections. Owing to nobody coming up to the scratch at the official hour for voting, the Justice of Peace, Sr Goita, sent a telegram to head-quarters to say that elections that day were null and void: A 'mesa' was ultimately got up in the environs of the Plazoleta, and voting went on, although not in a very satisfactory manner, by what one can judge by the mounted police going to Casa Amarilla and Venezuela Stations and ousting those in train who had gone from town to Boca to vote. Later on a little excitement was created, owing to an Italian shooting a countryman of his dead. The actors in the scene were a Tuscan and Roman; the man who fell was the Roman. Great antipathy has always prevailed amongst the two classes. The perpetrator was afterwards nabbed by the police at the Captain of the Port's, where he had taken refuge. The hulk Warrior is passing up.

Mr. Hellstrom, the well-known musical warehouseman in Calle Rivadavia, met with a sadly sudden death on Spy Wednesday. He was driving in a gig from Lobos to a friend's estancia, to enjoy a day's shooting, and most imprudently, carried his gun on full 'cock.' The gig gave a severe jolt in passing a 'bis cachera,' and the piece went off, blowing away his beard and half his skull. Death was instantaneous. What shocking carelessness to carry a gun on full cock in a jolting gig!

The steamer Saturno sails to-day for Salto. The agency is at No 143 Reconquista.

A man born to command isn't much different from one made to order.

ANOTHER MURDER.

La Argentina Vieja,
March 23rd, 1880.

To the Editor of the Standard,

Sir,

Would you kindly publish the substance of the following:—

Robert Stevens, a native of England, was most cruelly murdered, at the Estancia La Argentina Vieja, Saladillo, between the hours of seven and eight on the 13th inst. He was an inoffensive, harmless good fellow; never known to have a difference with any person, and consequently had no enemies.

It is clear the object was plunder. After locking the wife with the dying man in a room, they set about to ransack the estancia house; broke everything that had a lock on, and took whatever they thought worth taking. They were in no hurry, for they examined the whole place by candle-light; clothes were principally what they took, and ten paper dollars, all the money poor Stevens had at the time. As usual, no account of assassins.

Talk about the country progressing, the great auction and price of your frontier lands, &c., it is better starve by inches in Ireland than roll in wealth in such a country, where the assassin's knife launches one to eternity in half a minute. I assure you the female part of the community are pretty nervous about here just now.

Camps bad out this way.

Hoping you are in good health,
I remain, dear Sir,
Yours very sincerely,
A Subscriber.

The Bolsa opened this morning after the holidays with a rather crowded attendance. As a matter of course the absorbing topic before the ring opened was the robbery of Messrs Ocampo & Co by their collecting clerk Sanchez, a man ten years in their employ. Up to the closing hour nothing further was heard, and no trace whatever discovered of the missing clerk Not a few suggest that perhaps the man was murdered. The affair has given rise to the widest comment, and the result will be the adoption of the crossed check system in this market. We refer to the matter in our leading columns.

Gold opened at 30.40 and closed at 30.45, and remained pretty firm all day. At afternoon it weakened, and sellers were offering, it being rumoured that one broker who has to receive much gold at the end of the month, held a friendly meeting this afternoon to arrange for liquidation.

Cedulas rule firm at 85, and National Bank shares are somewhat stronger at 57½.

The arrival of the R.M.S. Minho was announced by telegram to Mr Green, the agent. Her mails come up to-night; we believe she brings £30,000 gold to the Liebig Factory.

Exchange rules very quiet, some first class bills passed at 49⅜, but drawers offer this rate. Bills on Paris passed at 5.20, and Antwerp 5.21. Not much done.

The sale of the Colonia dry dock is reported for 4,000 pats, cost, we believe, 150,000 pats. Mr Badaraca, of the Boca, bought it, and we believe will bring it to the Riachuelo and start it there. Captain Mauton, the seller, left for Europe in the Magellan.

Mr Peats and Mr Anderson, who were on board the Villa del Salto when she struck, were warmly welcomed on 'Change and congratulated on their escape. Mr Bemberg was also passenger on board, but none of the passengers got much wet. Morse stuffed some colchones into the hole and got his steamer up to Salto where she now lies; most of the passengers received the greatest attention at the estancia of Don Lucas Fernandez.

Very important news has come from London. Mr Bravo has succeeded in launching his great Bolivian scheme, capital all subscribed, and Mr Mitchell's plans adopted, company floated in London and Paris. Mr Bravo may be expected here by first steamer and goes up to Bolivia.

The sale of 600 pipes tallow, Gualeguay, from two saladeros there is reported at 18½.

Our remarks about the Migone failure have found the greatest echo, and many other such cases are to be brought to light. We heard to-day of one case where the amount in dispute was only 17,000 m/c., and the lawyers fee charged to one of the houses was 250,000 m/c.

The Magellan sailed last night at half past 11 o'clock, and the friends who went out to see her passengers off only landed at 2 a.m. The Magellan took the following cargo:—

For Liverpool—
5636 salted hides
1000 dry hides
2 bales nutria skins
322 bales wool
2 bales hair
1486 bags dried blood
7 casks albumen
17 bales sheepskins

For Bordeaux—
650 dry hides
541 bales sheepskins
193 bales wool
138 bags oat meat
50 live sheep

For Rio Janeyro—

44 pipes tallow
6 cases soap
30 bags beans
50 bags peas
40 baskets onions
1400 bags potatoes

Discount brokers report money easier; discounts paper at 7½ and gold at 6½. The Bank discounted to-day only 2½ millions, and after business hour the crossed check question was discussed.

It was announced that an estancioro's family were drowned near Bragado yesterday in trying to cross the river. No names given.

Respecting the vexed question of B. Ayrean wool sales to arrive in the United States, we are authorized to state that there are telegrams in town announcing the sale in New York of hides and wool at present on board vessels now in this port.

At afterhours gold was sold for the end of the year 20,000 at 30.35; the sale is important as it gives a quotation.

The sale of two well known city properties was reported on 'Change, and at prices certainly 50 per cent less than what they cost the late owners. Mr Hoevel's fine two-storey house at the Cinco Esquinas, sold for 52,000 m/c. Mr Victorica buyer; and Mr Woodgate's fine house, also in the same neighbourhood, with beautiful gardens etc., for 550,000 m/c. Mr Lima buyer.

Mr. Auchterloney was enveloped in friends when he entered the Hall and warmly congratulated on his recovery; also Messrs. Jackson and George Bell, who have arrived from the camp and report everything looking splendid out there. The rain has been tremendous up at Salto and Arrecifes. Mr. Rymer Watson was also welcomed; he says he never saw the sheep and cattle fatter, and, after all, there is no business in the country to rival the estancias.

Owing to the Southern Railway Athletic Sports to-day some of the brokers were absent, M. Richard and a few others. The Sports, we hear, were excellent.

The news from Europe, as appears by our telegram, continues excellent for wool; but very little wool is now coming in. Messrs. Unzue sold to-day 10,000 arrs. from deposit, inferior wool, we believe, at 105.

Capt. Bruce has at last taken the Boca in hand, and will in a few days run his steamer the Capitan from the Boca to Salto in the Uruguay. This is a great innovation, but will prove a great convenience, and we hope to see the public back up Capt. Bruce in the move.

Mr Schroeder, the well-known broker, and Mr Lahusen, hide exporter, were welcomed on their return from the Banda Oriental camps.

7000 National Bonds sold at afterhours at 79½.

The sale of 2000 cows al corte, South, at 235 m/c reported.

Mr A. Gallenga, the talented correspondent of the London Times, was welcomed on Change, he leaves to-morrow for Fray Bentos; we are happy to think that his impressions of the River Plate are favorable.

Mr Frederking and Mr Delgado have received full powers to sign, on Mr Corti's leaving for Europe, both these gentlemen are great popular in the market, and Messrs Carabassa and Co have named the right men in the right place.

The Rosario import merchants have presented an important petition to the National Minister of Finance, begging that the transhipment permits on wine &c. in casks which are issued here to show whence the import comes shall be available for the same purpose in Rosario. The petition is so just there can be little doubt as to its being at once acceded to.

Drs. Mendoza and Barros have now taken charge of the financial and commercial sections of the Diario del Comercio of Montevideo, so the readers of that paper may now look out for the fullest and most accurate on 'Change news of the sister city. We commend the absurd "reserved price" system of the sister market to the vigorous pens of our new colleagues. It should be broken down.

To-day it was formally announced on 'Change that the works on the Exhibition Palace in Plazas Mayo and Victoria will positively commence on Thursday next, April 1st. Some merchants feel superstitiously uneasy at the selection of such a date for laying the first stone. Plaza Mayo will be exclusively for machinery, and all the fine goods will be housed in Plaza Victoria.

Respecting coal Messrs Rams & Pietranera report 6 ships with 3,443 tons arrived during fortnight of which 1,489 tons were for the Gas Companies, and the rest for sale in the market, there being no stock, prices advanced to 12 pats gold. The cargo of the Voorwant sold at 11 pats gold; house coal sold at 10 pats to arrive, and steam coal sold at 10 pats on board. They say with regard to Spanish wine that owing to heavy arrivals, 7,140 pipes in a fortnight, prices have declined, and French wines, although maintaining their price, must also give way owing to the very heavy importations, 5,000 bordalesas in a fortnight. It is really wonderful how the market of B. Aires consumes such a quantity of liquor. The steamer Rivadavia just entered has brought 1,100 bordalesas of Bordeaux wine, 766 cases of brandy, 500 cases of absinthe, 150 cases of cheese, 50 cases of dried prunes. We receive by the Niger and Dago 2,124 cases of brandy, and by the Savoie and other steamers 3,700 cases of vermouth.

The National Minister of Hacienda, Dr. Plaza, has granted free permit to the following parties for new machinery imported for native industries:—Messrs Ladesma & Hnos. for two Wengwang mills with porcelain cylinders for their establishments in San Nicolas; to D Jose Olmos & Bau machinery for baking; to D Miguel Lanus new rice mill; to D Juan Barra new machine for lithographing music; Borra & Hnos machine for cleaning seed; G A Cranwell paper cutting machine.

The Centro Comercial has presented a petition to the National Minister of Hacienda praying for some reform in the Custom House rule for clearing vessels, and Mr Luro, the President of the Club, shows that to clear the schooner Bella Pepita the other day for Ajo with a cargo of about 1,000 arrobas 32 stamps of 75 cents each were necessary. Mr Luro very properly asks Dr Plaza to interpret the law and modify the charge, one paper of 75 cents stamp being sufficient to clear the vessel. We believe the Minister of Hacienda will take the same view of the matter.

Letters from the Interior state that several troops laden with white and red wines have left San Juan for Rosario, and 400 or 500 bordalesas may be expected there this month. Much of this wine we suppose will come down to this market where, notwithstanding the great import of wine from France and Spain, the wines from the provinces always sell well Wheat has gone up in price so much in the upper provinces that the people up there complain about the price of bread; a quintal of flour sells for 6 Bolivianos in San Juan, and whilst the wheat crops of the upper provinces have this year been fully up to the average, and quite sufficient for the consumption, a scarcity is threatened owing to the great speculation going on in Rosario and elsewhere.

A scheme will be laid before this Congress for the construction of a large dock in front of the Lanus deposits. As yet we have not seen the particulars of the proposal, but believe that parties in London have something to do with the matter.

Messrs Bunge and Co. of Antwerp, under date 26th Feb. 1880 give the following—

"Wool—

"Our market has ruled firm and active, and sales have been effected at an advance on our previous range of values. Buyers evince great disposition to take stock, and the movement in round lots has been large. Touching prices the changes which have been made since our last have been all in favour of sellers. As compared with the standard established at our last public sales, it may be said that prices of Buenos Aires wool have advanced fully 5 centimes, whilst the rise on Montevideo, fine Banda Oriental and Entre Rios under the influence of a keen demand for export to the U. States, has been much more important though irregular, and may reach 20 centimes in many instances.

"The aggregate of business transacted during the period under review numbers amongst the largest on record, and our stock is kept within narrow limits. Great wants apparently still remain to be filled, and the available supply not excessive in itself being further diminished by the purchases for American account, we may look for a firm maintenance of present prices.

"Sheepskins—

"There has been an increased demand, but the smallness of supply prohibiting any extension of business, prices are somewhat nominal. Sales 165 bales. Stock 33 bales.

"At the public sales held yesterday in Liverpool the whole quantity brought forward was sold on the basis of 8 pence for entire invoices of full woolled B. Aires matadero skins.

"Hides—

"Business continues to progress very slowly and the market is generally dull and uninteresting. There has been a moderate demand principally for B. Aires salted mataderos which realised former rates and of this description a few parcels have also been sold to arrive. We enumerate same as follows:—

Trent 1,075 B. Aires ex matadero. Ingwerson 64 9/10 lb. at f.73 the 15/20 kos., f.82 the 20/25 kos., and f.87 the 25/53 kos.

Trent 501 B. A. mat. cow 51-38 lb. at f.73 the 15/20 kos., and f.87 the 20/25 kos.

Pasca 1,000 B. A. mat. ox 62.20 lb. at f.82 the 20/25 kos., and f.87 the 25/52 kos.

In old season Uruguay ox a limited business has been done at f.83 for 25/32 kos., and f.78 for 20/25 kos.

"The state of killings in South America on 16th instant was 517,000 head of cattle against 520,000 same time last year."

We have received the following for publication—

B. Aires, March 29th

To the Editor of the Standard,

Sir

In your issue of March 26th you announced that the 'Negro Animal Manufactory' which formerly belonged to M Emile Marcelis, was to be sold by order of the Courts. Allow me to correct your news, which, in the way it is given, might possibly injure the Credit of the Joint Stock Company 'Negro Animal de la Plata,' which succeeded Messrs E Marcelis & Co. 2½ years ago.

The fact is, that the sale, which was announced, has been suspended by order of the same Judge who directed it to be made, after a seizure by a private creditor of M Emile Marcelis, but who had no claim whatever on the Company, in which M Marcelis has no share or right whatsoever.

The announcement in the newspapers must have been inserted by mistake, which I beg of you to rectify.

And oblige
Yours truly
EM. DAIREAUX
Lawyer of the Company.

En nuestra casa San Martin 51.

Base de venta 400,000 ps. legua

El Viernes 16 de Abril, a las 4 de la tarde procederemos a la venta de 2 leguas y 689 mls de legua de campo superior, situado en el partido de Rojas, conocido bajo el nombre de Las 3 Flores.

Este campo, perfectamente situado, quedando a 5 leguas del pueblo de Rojas y a 5 del pueblo de Pergamino, es de inmenso porvenir, pues el ferro-carril al Pergamino quedara terminado a fines de este año.

Esta magnifica estancia tiene todo su frente al rio de Rojas y linda con los antiguos campos de Llavallol, hoy de E. Casey, con el ejido del pueblo de Colon, Dr M Porcel de Peralta, con D Octavio de la Barra y otros, y por el otro costado con D Adolfo Sierra y Unzue. Esta señalado en el registro grafico con el nombre de Indalecio Sario.

Las condiciones generales de este campo son superiores por sus buenos partos, pues es aparente no solo para vacas sino que admite bien un numero regular de ovejas.

La base fijada como base de venta es infima en relacion a la calidad del campo, su posicion, sus condiciones ventajosas y de los precios obtenidos por campos inmediatos al que ofrecemos.

Para aquellos que emplean capitales en campos les recordaremos la reciente venta de tierras publicas, unas en el partido de Tres Arroyos, inmediato al arroyo Pillanuico Grande por el precio de $320,000 leguas, y otra en el partido de Bolivar a 340,000 id. Esto es exacto ademas es menester tener presente la diferencia de inmediacion con centros importantes.

Por planos y datos sobre estos campos a nuestra casa San Martin 51.

Las personas de la campaña pueden solicitarlo por carta y sera inmediatamente remitida.

Muy importante para el Publico.

Poseido de la mayor ansiedad, y con el debido respecto al Publico, apelo muy encarecidamente a toda clase de personas, para que se dignen prestarme su apoyo, dando a conocer como tales las malas y aun peligrosas falsificaciones de mis medicinas, hechas principalmente en Nueva York, de que tengan conocimiento.

Especuladores nada escrupulosos adquieren esta broza a un precio sumamente bajo, y la venden como si fuera mis genuinas pildoras y ungüento, logrando con este reprobado trafico una enorme ganancia.

Ninguno de los expresados medicamentos son genuinos, si no llevan en el rotulo de cada bote y caja la inscripcion siguiente: Holloway's Pills and Ointment, 533, Oxford Street, London, y el sello del Gobierno Britanico, con las palabras Holloway's Pills and Ointment, grabadas en el.

Las personas que tengan la bondad de informar de algun traficante que venda las enunciadas medicinas falsas, seran muy bien remuneradas, y nunca, ni en circumstancia alguna, se publicaran sus nombres.
